“I build solutions around each client’s need. With a creative and collaborative commitment to service, I work to understand each client’s situation and suggest multiple creative ideas to keep a transaction on track, resolve a business challenge, or take advantage of an opportunity. Clients appreciate my ability to pull together advice from colleagues and strategic advisors with specialized expertise and diverse perspectives to develop well-informed and comprehensive solutions.”

Doug Morris is a partner in the firm’s business team and chairs the the firm’s consumer products & services department. Doug’s practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, securities, and corporate representation of businesses. He frequently serves as general counsel for clients, providing business and strategic advice, structuring key transactions and licensing agreements, reviewing contracts and drafting agreements, and assembling the right team of subject-matter experts to meet clients’ varied needs.

Doug has particular experience in the entertainment and media industry, working with creators, managers, and brands. He also works extensively in the cannabis industry, advising retailers, growers, processors, and ancillary businesses.

Doug is active in the community and currently serves on the boards of Oregon Cannabis Association, SOLVE, and Metropolitan Public Defender Services, Inc. He recently served as board chair of Albertina Kerr Centers.
