

Nichole Barnes

 Paralegal

☎ 206.777.7576 📍 Seattle Office
✉ nichole.barnes@millernash.com
🐦 @millernashllp

“Clients are my number one priority and I work hard to ensure that our clients’ needs are met promptly, thoroughly, and efficiently. No task is ever too large or too small!”

Nichole Barnes is a member of the condemnation/ eminent domain team and provides general litigation support. She is known for her attention to detail in supporting the condemnation team as they advise and represent municipal agencies and property owners in substantive and procedural eminent domain matters. Whether assisting with discovery or in the courtroom, Nichole’s practice of listening carefully to clients and colleagues ensures that all questions are answered, and tasks are capably completed.

Professional Activities

- National Federation of Paralegal Associations, member

Personal Activities

Nichole and her boyfriend Nic live in Everett and have a chocolate lab/malamute mix named Runi. Nichole enjoys going out to new breweries with friends, hiking, reading, playing with Runi, and watching Nic play softball.

Education

Advanced Paralegal
Certificate, Edmonds
Community College, 2013

B.A., Eastern Washington University, general
management, 2010