“I understand that clients are contacting the firm during an emotional time – following the loss of a loved one. My main priority is to help guide clients through the estate/trust administration process and keep them informed throughout. I bring value and a keen attention to detail to my work.”

Kim Sandstrom is an estate planning and probate paralegal, with a focus on estate/trust administration. She is experienced with documenting estate/trust assets and their values, preparing estate and gift tax returns, and accounting for estates/trusts.

She has additional experience preparing wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and health care directives that properly convey a client’s wishes.

Kim is a registered legal assistant with the King County Bar Association Legal Assistant Registration Program, allowing her to present agreed and/or ex parte orders before the King County Superior Court.
