“I work with clients from various industries to navigate the details for protecting their intellectual property and make the process run smoothly. No matter the size or complexity of a new or existing portfolio, my approach is to communicate clearly and work efficiently with clients to help them obtain and maintain valuable assets.”

Becky Summers joined Miller Nash in 2016 and is a member of the firm’s intellectual property team and technology and emerging business practice area. Becky has more than 14 years of experience with U.S. and foreign trademark and patent prosecution and maintenance, including WIPO (Madrid) international applications and subsequent designations, proceedings before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (TTAB) and international (PCT) patent filing. She is also skilled in U.S. copyright protection and enforcement, Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) takedown procedures, trademark clearance searching, U.S. Customs and Border Protection registration matters, and portfolio management, as well as assignments, licensing, and other related aspects of intellectual property ownership.
