“My emphasis is on providing accurate and timely information throughout the litigation process. My knowledge and responsiveness helps guide clients through what may be a stressful time in their lives and my goal is to be a calm and supportive presence while working with our clients to find the right solution for their needs.”

Faustina Ash joined Miller Nash in 2013 and is a member of the firm’s employment law and education practice teams. Faustina is paralegal experienced in various practice areas, including complex litigation, employment litigation, business litigation, and bankruptcy matters. She has a vast amount of trial experience and has participated in multi-day or week trials as well as numerous state and federal court hearings, arbitrations, and mediations during her 25 years in the legal industry. Faustina is also skilled in electronic discovery, including document collection, analysis and review, production, and database management.
