“I am committed to providing thoughtful and thorough advice while working towards a resolution that prioritizes each client’s unique goals and circumstances.”

Eden Vasquez is an associate on the firm’s education and employment law teams. Eden assists clients, including higher education and K-12 institutions, public school districts, and private schools in advice and litigation matters related to disability discrimination and accommodation, wage and hour compliance, and other tort claims. Her education-related work has encompassed providing guidance under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act. Eden began at Miller Nash as a summer associate in 2019. As a summer associate, she assisted the general litigation, education, employment, and business practice groups.

Before joining the firm, Eden clerked for the Oregon Department of Justice in the Appellate Division, where she gained experience briefing cases before the Oregon Court of Appeals and assisted in briefing and preparing arguments before the Oregon Supreme Court and Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Eden graduated second in her class from Willamette University College of Law. During law school, Eden was active in the Multicultural Law Student Association and the Latinx Law Student Association and was a regional competitor on both the National Appellate Advocacy and Jessup International Moot Court teams. After graduating from law school, Eden co-chaired the Willamette Racial Justice Task Force, formed to study the peremptory challenge, a tool used by attorneys during jury selection to remove jurors without having to state a reason.

Personal Activities

Eden was raised in both the Pacific Northwest and Oaxaca, Mexico. She enjoys spending her free time in the PNW hiking, snowboarding, or golfing—depending on the season. When visiting Oaxaca, Eden enjoys spending time with family and exploring Southern Mexico. Eden is also an avid softball player, playing since she was four, and still enjoys playing in Portland recreational leagues.
