“Using technology, data, and financial modeling, I drive improvements in business processes and client value. It is important to me that those with whom I work daily understand that I measure my success by meeting their needs.”

Keith Powell brings more than 30 years of financial experience to Miller Nash. He leads the team responsible for all aspects of accounting, financial reporting, and revenue management for the firm, and works closely with firm leadership in executing Miller Nash’s strategic plan.

Keith uses his collaborative manner to build relationships with stakeholders. His experience in a variety of industries, including banking, healthcare, information technology services, and technology enables him to develop solutions that meet client needs.

Personal Activities

Keith enjoys spending time outdoors and is happiest when on a warm and sunny beach. He enjoys traveling with his wife and they consider themselves fortunate to have lived in such beautiful places as Colorado, Northern California, Florida, Hawaii, and the Pacific Northwest.
