“I am dedicated to untangling complex legal issues and developing thoughtful solutions for clients. I evaluate the unique circumstances of each matter and take note of the challenges faced to find the path that best advances the clients’ goals.”

Ella Vincent serves the financial services industry through her work in bankruptcy and creditors’ rights. She analyzes legal issues related to bankruptcies, receiverships, secured transactions, and other creditor-debtor matters. Ella assists with contested matters, adversary proceedings, and other adjunct litigation, including drafting motions and responsive pleadings. Ella also represents financial institutions and other clients in general commercial litigation matters.

Prior to joining Miller Nash, Ella completed a two-year term as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Brian D. Lynch of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington.

During law school, Ella served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Ann Aiken of the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon and as a law clerk for the Tax and Finance Section of the Oregon Department of Justice’s General Counsel Division. After graduation, Ella was an associate in the creditors’ rights and bankruptcy department of another major Seattle law firm, where she assisted in the representation of a debtor in a Chapter 9 health care bankruptcy.
