

Sarah Chicoine

Associate

☎ 206.777.7467 📍 Seattle Office
✉ sarah.chicoine@millernash.com
🐦 @millernashllp

“Benefits law resides in a complex and intricate legal landscape. I will use my penchant for delving deep into the details to navigate the complexities of benefits law and to provide understandable, pragmatic, and adaptive counsel for our clients.”

Sarah Chicoine joined the firm as an associate in the employee benefits and tax team where she will assist corporate, tax-exempt, and government employers on deferred compensation and health and welfare plans.

During law school, Sarah worked as a summer law clerk for the healthcare team at the University of Washington division of the Washington State Attorney General’s Office, as a legal extern with the Washington State Hospital Association, and as a legal extern for a Washington State Court of Appeals judge. Before going to law school, Sarah worked as an analyst and project manager at Microsoft.

Professional Activities

- Western Pension & Benefits Conference, Portland Chapter, member
- Legal extern, the Honorable Anne Crusier, Washington State Court of Appeals, Division Two, 2021
- Legal extern, Washington State Hospital Association, 2019 - 2020
- Law clerk, Washington State Attorney General’s Office, University of Washington division, 2019

Civic Activities

- Seattle Humane Society, past volunteer

Personal Activities

Sarah enjoys spending time outside, often running with her dog or working on her golf game with her husband. Sarah is also a proud roommate to two cats, who prefer when she spends time inside.

Education

J.D., University of Washington School of Law, with honors, 2021

- Articles Editor, Washington Law Review

B.A., University of Washington, accounting and marketing, 2013

- Dean’s List

Bar Admissions

Washington, 2021