

Bryce Parkllan

Associate

 503.205.2368  Portland Office
 bryce.parkllan@millernash.com
 @millernashllp

“To provide creative and practical solutions for complicated tax issues, I start by learning about the client’s business and goals. I strive to distill complex tax concepts into understandable bites that allow my clients to make the best decision and achieve their goals in a tax-efficient manner.”

Bryce Parkllan is a tax and business attorney with experience in international tax compliance for multinational businesses, investment funds, and tax-exempt organizations operating in the U.S. and U.S. territories. He assists clients in structuring cross-border acquisitions, integrating legal entities, and ensuring full utilization of U.S. federal tax incentives.

Bryce was previously an associate with KPMG LLP, where he focused on international tax consulting and compliance for Fortune 500 companies and high net-worth individuals with international holdings.

Professional Activities

- Multnomah Bar Association, member
- Oregon State Bar, member
 - Tax Section
 - Business Law Section
- American Bar Association, member
 - Tax Section

Publications

- “When Worlds Collide: How Tangible Tax Burdens Attach to Digital Commerce in the United States (Part 2),” Miller Nash, coauthor (Nov. 2021)
- “When Worlds Collide: How Tangible Tax Burdens Attach to Digital Commerce across the Globe (Part 1),” Miller Nash, coauthor (Nov. 2021)
- “New Reporting Requirements for Deposit Interest Paid to Residents of Chile,” Miller Nash, Bank Law Monitor, coauthor (Oct. 2021)

Personal Activities

Bryce enjoys traveling and exploring the Pacific Northwest with his wife and son. He also enjoys cooking, reading, and playing golf.

Education

LL.M., New York University School of Law, taxation, 2019

J.D., University of Oregon School of Law, 2018

- Order of the Coif

B.S., University of Phoenix, business, 2015

- Delta Mu Delta International Honor Society

Bar Admissions

Oregon, 2019