“Clients turn to my thoughtful, thorough, and adaptive approach to cases and problems, compelling advocacy, and persuasive writing as they tackle high-profile litigation and navigate knotty employment issues and intricate laws and regulations.”

Iván (pronounced “ee-v-AA-n”) Resendiz Gutierrez is a litigation attorney serving the employment and appellate needs of public and private clients, with an emphasis on supporting K-12 and higher education institutions. Iván is known for handling complex cases and situations, providing practical advice, and finding creative solutions for clients from across the U.S. from such diverse industries as education and energy. A former judicial clerk and accomplished appellate practitioner in Oregon and federal courts, Iván has handled oral argument to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the Oregon Court of Appeals.

Iván advises private and public organizations on knotty employment-related issues, including discrimination, harassment, retaliation, novel coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) issues—including vaccine and face covering laws and regulations and unemployment insurance benefits—and wage and hour compliance, and on preparing employment documents such as employment agreements, handbooks, and other workplace policies. Iván also regularly helps higher education institutions navigate the federal and state antitrust laws and works with them to establish safeguards to minimize the risk of antitrust scrutiny.

Iván defends public and private organizations on a wide range of employment and commercial matters before state and federal courts and administrative agencies, including appeals, breaches of contract, class actions, employment discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wrongful termination (as well as other tort claims), professional negligence, and ERISA litigation.

Iván is a regular speaker and author on employment law, diversity, and litigation topics. He has been recognized by national, state, and local organizations, including receiving the Hispanic National Bar Association’s “Top Lawyers Under 40” Award, the University of Oregon School of Law’s “Outstanding Young Alumni Award,” and the Oregon State Bar President’s Diversity & Inclusion Award; being named to the Portland Business Journal’s Forty Under 40 list in 2021, being listed in Oregon Super Lawyers—Rising Stars, and included in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch.

Representative Experience

Appellate Law

- Iván is an accomplished appellate practitioner in Oregon and federal appellate courts. He has handled high-stakes appeals in diverse subject areas, including commercial disputes, CERCLA issues, constitutional law issues, criminal justice issues, education law issues, ERISA disputes, insurance coverage, tort claims, and securities claims. His experience includes appellate motions and petitions, merits and amicus briefing, and oral argument (before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the Oregon Court of Appeals), petitions for writ of mandamus and petitions for review to the Oregon Supreme Court, and amicus briefs in the U.S. Supreme Court.
- Representing an Oregon company on appeal in a dispute with its insurer regarding insurance coverage of business losses incurred due to COVID-19. The Oregon Clinic PC v. Fireman's Fund Insurance Co., No. 22-35047 (9th Cir.) (Ongoing)
- Representing one of the nation's largest insurance brokerages at the district court level (after the successful removal from a state circuit court) and on appeal in a dispute regarding the enforceability of restrictive covenants. (Ongoing)
- Representing three major energy companies on appeal in a dispute with the federal government regarding the recovery of response costs incurred in cleaning up a Superfund site. (Ongoing)
- Representing school district on appeal regarding claims for negligence, employment discrimination, and battery brought by current employees. (Ongoing)
- Successfully defended a private university on appeal regarding claims for breach of contract and unjust enrichment brought by a former graduate student. Gallagher v. Capella Educ. Co., 21-35188, 2021 WL 6067015, at *1 (9th Cir. Dec. 20, 2021).
- Successfully defended university on appeal—including handling the oral argument—regarding claims for violation of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, 29 U.S.C. § 794 and breach of contract and estoppel under state law brought by former graduate student.
- Successfully represented public body on appeal in a custodianship proceeding concerning the abandoned law practice of a former Oregon attorney.
- Successfully represented immigrant detainee, who fled from Venezuela during the Hugo Rafael Chávez regime, on appeal regarding the right to counsel in administrative removal proceedings under the Immigration and Nationality Act. This was a pro bono matter taken through the Ninth Circuit's Pro Bono Program. Victor Manuel Fonseca v. Merrick B. Garland, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, Case No. 19-72162.
- Secured affirmance of a permanent stalking protective order under Oregon's civil stalking statute (ORS 30.866) in a case involving a respondent who initiated a series of contacts with the petitioner over several months. This was a pro bono matter taken through the Oregon Appellate Pro Bono Program. C. Q. R. v. Wafula, 305 Or App 344 (2020).
- Successfully defended company at the district court level (after the successful removal from a state circuit court) and on appeal—including handling the oral argument—regarding multimillion-dollar claims for failure to remit withholdings, breach of fiduciary duty, conversion, and intentional interference with economic relations brought by current and former employees. Barr v. Ross Island Sand & Gravel Co., 788 F App'x 556 (9th Cir 2019).
- Secured reversal of a trial court decision denying an Oregonian's petition for the relief from the prohibition of possessing or receiving a firearm. This was a pro bono matter taken through the Oregon Appellate Pro Bono Program. Bentley v. Multnomah County Sheriff's Office, 297 Or App 609 (2019).
- Assisted with the appellate component of a favorable resolution of a complex $30 million negligence lawsuit arising from a crane-rollover accident in San Diego, California.

- Assisted with the appellate component of a complex lawsuit involving a group of investors that collectively lost millions of dollars arising out of the collapse of an Oregon investment company accused of defrauding investors.
- Assisted with briefing and oral argument preparation on a major insurance coverage dispute. Bighorn Logging Corp. v. Truck Ins. Exchange, 295 Or App 819 (2019).

Antitrust

- Iván understands the unique interplay between antitrust law and education law. Iván helps higher education institutions navigate the federal and state antitrust laws and works with them to establish safeguards to minimize the risk of antitrust scrutiny.

BOLI & EEOC Investigation Responses

- Regularly defend employers (including education service districts) in connection with charges filed with the Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries (BOLI) and the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

Civil Rights

- Researched and contributed to briefing on a class-action challenge to the constitutionality of Executive Order 13769, relating to the immigration and travel ban of individuals from predominantly Muslim countries to the United States. This was a pro-bono matter.

Corporate Governance & Securities Litigation

- Obtained order placing cannabis company into receivership. (Ongoing)
- Successfully resolved claims against nonprofit board members accused of defamation, misappropriation of funds, and improper removal of board member.
- Represented company and directors in shareholder class action arising out of merger. Azar v. Blount Int'l, Inc., No. 3:16-CV-0483-SI, 2019 WL 7372658, at *1 (D Or Dec. 31, 2019).
- Successful defense of securities fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, and suitability claims arising from the sale of emerging market securities in bet-the-company arbitration. FINRA panel denied claimants' claims and request for compensatory damages for more than $940,000 in their entirety.
- Represented investment advisory firm and broker in defending claims in FINRA arbitration involving variable annuities. Secured favorable settlement on the eve of arbitration hearing.

Education

- Successfully defended university on appeal—including handling the oral argument—regarding claims for violation of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, 29 U.S.C. § 794 and breach of contract and estoppel under state law brought by former graduate student.
- Representing university regarding claims for violations of 42 U.S.C. § 1983, 42 U.S.C. § 1985 and § 1986, and Anti-Terrorism Act (ATA), 18 U.S.C. § 2331, et seq. (Ongoing)
- Successfully defended college at the district court level regarding claims for violations of the American With Disabilities Act of 1990, the Age Discrimination and Employment Act of 1967, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, constitutional rights set forth in the 1st, 4th, 5th, and 14th amendments to the United States Constitution, and Section 504 of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act brought by a former instructor.
- Successfully defended university at the district court level and on appeal regarding claims for Title VI discrimination and Section 1983 due process violations brought by former undergraduate student.

Employee Benefits

- Successfully defended company at the district court level (after the successful removal from a state circuit court) and on appeal regarding multimillion-dollar claims for failure to remit withholdings, breach of fiduciary duty, conversion, and intentional interference with economic relations brought by current and former employees.

- Obtained six-figure recovery on behalf of a trustee asserting accelerated withdrawal liability, interest, statutory damages, liquidated damages, and attorney’s fees and costs under Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended by the Multiemployer Pension Plan Amendments Act of 1980.

Investigations

- Conducted high-profile independent investigation into allegations of discrimination against leadership of nonprofit organization.

Media & Technology

- Secured preliminary injunction and return of two domain names to company after former employee had commandeered its websites and social media accounts.

Negligence

- Obtained summary judgment dismissing a $25 million wrongful death action.
- Successfully resolved a negligence claim against a school district arising from an alleged student-on-student incident.

Public/Constitutional Law Experience

- Iván understands the unique issues that public entities face. He is comfortable in the legal framework where public entities operate, including public ethics, transparency, and working with governing boards. His work includes counseling and litigation involving Oregon and federal constitutional issues such as free speech, due process, equal protection, searches and seizures, and the right to bear arms, among other things.

Tax

- Represented an Oregon nonprofit challenging a county assessor’s denial of the nonprofit’s application for property tax exemption in the Oregon Tax Court.
