“Ensuring that our firm delivers an excellent experience to our clients is my primary focus. I work with all staff departments and attorneys across the firm to collaborate as a team and to continually improve our processes, the value that we deliver, and the high level of client service we are known for.”

Cynthia Voth oversees the firm’s daily operations, consistently bringing the voice of our clients to all firm initiatives and processes. She works closely with firm leadership and staff management to execute the firm’s strategic plan and ensure that the firm’s policies promote our vision statement. She supervises the directors and managers in IT, client services (marketing and business development), records, and the legal staffing departments. Cynthia designs and manages key client engagement initiatives and works with all constituents at the firm to continue to improve and deliver excellent client service. She also designs, implements, and manages client feedback assessments to ensure we are meeting and surpassing client needs and to inform firm decision making. She is a member of the firm’s Technology Committee, Diversity & Inclusion Committee, and Pathways to Success Committee. With a strong background in business development, Cynthia also regularly coaches and presents to the attorneys at the firm about client development and how to grow their practice strategically and effectively. She is dedicated to the advancement of the legal profession and is a long-time active volunteer with the Legal Marketing Association—having recently served as president of the International Board of Directors.

Personal Activities

Cynthia grew up in the Pacific Northwest and is happiest in the mountains. Her favorite activities are backpacking and day hiking and she has a particular fondness for spending time in the North Cascades or any place that has a view of Mount Tahoma (also known as Mount Rainier). She also likes traveling to places with great trails, particularly Iceland, Alaska, and southern Utah. When it comes to non-hiking activities, Cynthia enjoys gardening, cooking, cheering for the U.S. Women's National Soccer team, and DJing occasional dance parties.
