

Jason Proctor, CRP

 Paralegal

☎ 206.777.7436 📍 Seattle Office
✉ jason.proctor@millernash.com
🐦 @millernashllp

“I am dedicated to helping clients receive successful outcomes. Through excellent communication, organization, adaptability and experience, I enjoy working with our team to bring a more efficient approach to litigation.”

Jason Proctor is a paralegal supporting Miller Nash’s employment and general litigation teams. He is a highly organized certified paralegal with more than ten years of litigation experience who excels at case management, drafting documents, legal research, eDiscovery, and trial preparation. Jason has worked in a variety of industry sectors with a focus on employment law. He has worked with lawyers and clients in all areas of litigation, from inception of a case through investigation, discovery, mediations, and trials. Jason has state, federal, and appellate court experience as well as extensive knowledge of the litigation process.

Civic Activities

- Food Lifeline, volunteer

Personal Activities

In addition to spending time with family and friends, Jason enjoys basketball, snowboarding, traveling, and going to Seahawks games.

Education

Paralegal Certificate,
University of Washington, 2011

Certificate in Private Investigations, University of Washington, 2014

B.A., Lewis & Clark
College, Dean’s List,
communication studies,
2006