“I appreciate the importance of collaboration between attorneys and professional staff to assist clients in achieving their desired outcomes. I enjoy client contact when possible and strive to anticipate client needs and concerns.”

Bob Rousseau supports the construction and insurance recovery department and the litigation practice team. He has over 20 years of experience working in defense and plaintiff environments, supporting and assisting with trials and arbitrations, including preparing for use and displaying in court evidential documents and deposition testimony, drafting exhibit lists, and preparing exhibits. Bob also has an extensive background in utilizing electronic discovery tools to perform a multitude of tasks, including document review, coding, and production.

Prior to joining Miller Nash, Bob worked at a labor and employment law firm in its Oregon and California offices.

Personal Activities

A recent Portland resident, Bob has spent most of his adult life on the West Coast and prefers the Pacific Northwest (and Portland specifically) most of all. He spends his off time exploring Oregon’s beautiful Coast and frequenting Portland’s eclectic mix of restaurants and movie theaters.
