“I partner with clients to understand their unique business goals and operations, and aim to provide practical and prompt legal advice that is tailored to the particular needs of each individual business and workplace.”

Stacie Damazo is a member of the firm’s employment law & labor relations team. She defends employers in a variety of employment matters, while serving as proactive counsel to ensure compliance and identify legal issues before they arise. Additionally, Stacie serves as a workplace investigator, conducting investigations into allegations of employee misconduct, harassment, discrimination, retaliation, and other sensitive issues.

In addition to her employment law experience, Stacie has a diverse background in commercial and personal litigation, including business and real estate litigation, as well as personal injury disputes. In 2018, Stacie worked as an extern to the Honorable Magistrate Judge Stacie F. Beckerman of the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon.

Before joining Miller Nash, Stacie practiced at a boutique employment law firm in Oregon.
