“My focus is on taking a proactive approach by anticipating and addressing our clients’ unique needs and concerns. With my strengths in analysis, problem solving, and creativity, I am committed to ensuring clients receive the highest level of support and satisfaction.”

Brandon Rueda supports the firm’s general litigation practice. He has several years of experience assisting attorneys in all phases of litigation in state, federal, and appellate courts, as well as administrative and arbitration forums. Brandon regularly assists with discovery, including document and data management, review and production, and eDiscovery. He is also experienced in assisting with collecting and analyzing electronically stored information and data forensic investigations.

Prior to working as a paralegal, Brandon spent almost ten years as the director of orchestra operations at the Pacific Symphony.
