

Danielle Riege

Associate

☎ 503.205.2441 📍 Portland Office
✉ danielle.riege@millernash.com

“My approach to providing exceptional service centers on being thorough, creative, and personable. I enjoy getting to know my clients and strive to present effective, tailored solutions to each one.”

Danielle Riege is an associate on the firm’s business & corporate team. Danielle began as a summer associate in 2022 and 2023 where she supported the business & corporate, sports & entertainment, and intellectual property teams by conducting legal research and drafting memoranda.

While in law school, Danielle was a judicial extern for the Honorable Michael J. McShane at the U.S. District Court of Oregon. As an extern, Danielle assisted the judge in resolving a wide range of complex legal questions by completing various writing and research assignments. Danielle also served as a Legal Research & Writing tutor for first-year law students. Prior to law school, Danielle enjoyed a seven-year marketing career in technology and fashion industries.

Professional Activities

- Oregon State Bar, Member, 2024-present

Publications

- “Disney Prevails in ‘Moana’ Copyright Case: Lessons for Creators,” IP & Technology Law Trends (Mar. 2025)
- “Cybersecurity Transparency Under Fire: Tech Firms Pay Big for Downplaying SolarWinds Breaches,” Miller Nash, Bank Law Monitor (Nov. 2024)
- “Don’t Let Your Core Brands Fall Victim to Trademark Trolls,” Miller Nash, IP & Technology Law Trends (Aug. 2022)

Presentations

- “Athlete Rights and Labor Relations: An Overview of Recent Cases & Developments,” Washington State Bar Association, Sports Law CLE webinar (Aug. 2023)

Personal Activities

Danielle is a Midwest transplant (go Hoosiers!) and spends her downtime exploring the great outdoors of Oregon with her husband and son.

Education

J.D., University of Oregon School of Law, 2024

- Tutor, Legal Research & Writing
- Member, Black Law Student Association

B.A., Indiana Institute of Technology, summa cum laude, marketing & business administration, 2015

Bar Admissions

Oregon, 2024
Washington, 2026