“My approach to client service centers on clear communications, resourcefulness, and compassion. I prioritize keeping clients informed and supported throughout the process while thoughtfully addressing their needs.”

Anna Sier is a member of the firm’s bankruptcy & creditors’ rights and Litigation teams, providing legal support for banks, financial institutions, creditors, and other clients. She assists attorneys with case preparation and document management; drafts pleadings, motions, discovery documents, and memoranda; coordinates discovery and document review; and prepares deposition summaries, witness lists, and trial exhibits. Anna is skilled in legal writing, legal research, and document preparation, and she brings strong writing and time management abilities.

Before joining Miller Nash, Anna worked as a paralegal at a midsize Seattle law firm focusing on litigation and bankruptcy matters.

Personal Activities

Anna enjoys staying active and exploring Seattle. She also enjoys making art, reading, and spending time with her cat, Bagheera.
