

Erin Ryder

Paralegal

📞 206.777.7527 📍 Seattle

✉️ erin.ryder@millernash.com

“I strive to be a dependable partner to our clients by providing detailed, timely support and clear communication. My goal is to bring a steady, thoughtful approach to matters, ensuring clients feel supported while we work toward efficient and effective results.”

Erin Ryder is a member of the firm’s franchise & distribution services team. Erin assists franchisor clients in preparing, maintaining, and updating franchise disclosure documents engaging with regulatory agencies in jurisdictions across the country.

Before joining Miller Nash, Erin worked at Starbucks for eight years, serving in the company’s legal department as a contract management consultant, paralegal, and legal practice assistant.

Personal Activities

Erin enjoys spending time with her husband and two sons. When not exploring the local parks or watching her sons play sports, she likes to read, run, and occasionally golf.

Education

Paralegal Certificate,
Highline College, 2014

B.S., University of Oregon, history and political science, 2008