

Kris Goldfarb

Paralegal

☎ 206.777.7525 📍 Seattle
✉ kris.goldfarb@millernash.com

“I strive to provide responsive and knowledgeable support and solutions for our clients. My goal is to leverage my experience navigating complex real estate matters so that our clients experience transactions as seamless and efficient.”

Kris Goldfarb is a paralegal on the firm’s real estate team, bringing more than 22 years of industry experience to real estate transactions. Kris assists with drafting and organizing transaction documents, coordinating deadlines and closing materials, analyzing title, survey, and due diligence items, and communicating with clients, lenders, title companies, brokers, and internal legal teams to keep matters moving efficiently and accurately.

Prior to joining Miller Nash, Kris worked at a prominent Pacific Northwest firm where she assisted with real estate, finance, and mergers and acquisitions transactions.

Personal Activities

Kris enjoys spending time with her husband and daughter, preferably at a Disney park.

Education

B.A., University of Washington, international studies and political science

- Certificate in political economy